

They traffic and weather channels help when im traveling to the larger cities. The NAB should not be able to tell me what i can and cant listen to when im paying for a service that offers the variety that XM radio gives that other venues just cant deliver.